Amerada Hess Corporation respectfully request an extension to the temporary abandonment status of the McKenzie Federal #2 until December 1, 1996. We are in process of selling this lease and expect closure on this property to occur no later than December, 1996. We will notify the BLM as to the new operator when this information becomes available to us. If this property does not sell, we will evaluate the lease for stimulation potential and proceed with the reactivation of the well bore as economic conditions permit.
