Dear Charlie:

In reference to our telephone conversation December 31, 1985, we are requesting a temporary change of oil transporter on the above referenced well.

Giant Refining has been the authorized transporter of oil since October 4, 1982 and will continue to be the transporter.

On December 30, 1985 Mancos Corp. inadvertently hauled 75.12 bbls. of oil from this well, therefore we are requesting a temporary change of oil transporter from Giant Refining to Mancos Corp. for that day only.

Sincerely,

Bud Crane
