Mobil Oil requests flaring of produced gas for an additional 30 days starting December 1, 1987. Last day of flaring associated with monitoring and evaluating production is November 30, 1987. Additional time is necessary to continue oil production and secure a gas contract.

As was stipulated with the previous flaring, Mobil will be paying royalty on all gas flared.

This verifies the verbal request made to and approved by Mr. Ken Townsend of the Farmington BLM office on the morning of November 25, 1987.
