1. The first part of the paper is a review of the literature on the effects of the 1997 Asian financial crisis on the economies of the Asian countries. The review shows that the crisis had a significant negative impact on the economies of the Asian countries, leading to a sharp decline in GDP, a rise in unemployment, and a loss of confidence in the financial system.

2. The second part of the paper is a case study of the effects of the crisis on the economy of South Korea. The case study shows that the crisis had a significant negative impact on the economy of South Korea, leading to a sharp decline in GDP, a rise in unemployment, and a loss of confidence in the financial system. The case study also shows that the government of South Korea implemented a series of measures to deal with the crisis, including a restructuring of the financial system and a strengthening of the legal system.
