Plugging  Other Temporary Abandon

Detailed account of work done, nature and quantity of materials used and results obtained.

In attempting to service this well, it was discovered that a stuck packer and plugged tubing existed. Due to the small amount of oil this well produces, the expense to return the well to producing status cannot be justified at this time. The well is being temporarily abandoned and this report is submitted for purpose of removing well from oil proration schedule.

This well must be notified every 6 months
