Thanks Kathy.

Robert Hamlet has updated the name, coordinates, and legal location. I will attach the release to this facility and upload this email chain so there is documentation of the discrepancies between the NOR and the Initial C-141 and the incident file itself.

Subject: Tex Mack 203 Battery (nAPP2429528891) 10-18-2024

My apologies, I incorrectly reported this release at the Tex Mack 203 Battery when actually it is at the Tex Mack 202 Battery. The GPS and Legal description was also incorrectly reported. The correct GPS is 32.858933, -103.843666 and the correct legal description is N-02-17S-31E.

Again, I am sorry for the confusion, the lease operator reported it incorrectly. Please be so kind as to update the permitting portal please.
