Mike: I think it's supposed to be an E/2 unit. I will run it down and get back to you.

It appears I made a big, big error in NSL-5169. Please disregard this order until I get back with everyone later this afternoon. Sorry for the mix-up.

Mike:

In Sec. 2, the Jacquez wells are W/2 and the Chavez wells are E/2. The plat had the N/2 of Sec. 11 outlined, so maybe that's the source of the confusion.

Let me know if I need to do anything more.

Scott
