Dear Ms. Duarte

Please see my email to you earlier today regarding you application for the ROO 22 Stat Well No. 8.

All of the issues that I discussed in that email apply to this application also. Once again, there is one party on your notice list for whom you have not furnished a signed waiver. The notice letters are in the same defective format as with the ROO application.

Also there is here a diagonal encroachment toward Unit P of Section 20, and I do not know if you have taken that into account in preparing your notice list.

We will defer further processing of this application pending a response to this inquiry.

Sincerely

Dear Ms. Duarte

What you have furnished with the attached email appears to be only a Receipt for Certified Mail for mailing on June 25 of something to a Walter Granberry, Jr. This does not tell me what you mailed to Mr. Granberry, nor what his relationship is to your NSL application.

I had three objections to your application, none of which is cured by this submission alone:

1. You listed Andrews Oil LP as an affected party, and you did not furnish a waiver from that party.
2. Your cover letters to the affected parties, copies of which were attached to your application, do not contain the admonition required by OCD Rule 19.15.15.13 NMAC to the effect that any objection must be received by OCD within 20 days after the filing of your application.
3. Nothing in your application indicated that, in compiling your list of affected parties, you had considered the encroachment of this proposed location diagonally toward Unit P of Section 20-17S-28E.

Please furnish responses to these issues.

Sincerely

David K. Brooks

Mr. Granberry owns in Unit P of Section 20 (#3 in his e-mail dated June 27th). This was the diagonal encroachment you were referring to. I will send out another one to Andrews since it looks like he is the only one we don't have a waiver from.

Dear Ms. Duarte

What you have furnished with the attached email appears to be only a Receipt for Certified Mail for mailing on June 25 of something to a Walter Granberry, Jr. This does not tell me what you mailed to Mr. Granberry, nor what his relationship is to your NSL application.

I had three objections to your application, none of which is cured by this submission alone:

1. You listed Andrews Oil LP as an affected party, and you did not furnish a waiver from that party.
2. Your cover letters to the affected parties, copies of which were attached to your application, do not contain the admonition required by OCD Rule 19.15.15.13 NMAC to the effect that any objection must be received by OCD within 20 days after the filing of your application.
3. Nothing in your application indicated that, in compiling your list of affected parties, you had considered the encroachment of this proposed location diagonally toward Unit P of Section 20-17S-28E.

Please furnish responses to these issues.

Sincerely

David K. Brooks
