Bob,

We received this report from SLO on the Humidor Unit 3 Lightning strike. It appears the berm was breached. The OCD will require the area outside the lined battery to be addressed.

Thank you,

Mike and Heather, here's some additional information regarding the YPC Humidor which suffered a lightning strike earlier this week. I visited the site on Monday, 7/13 and discovered some PW escaped the berm and made it into the pasture. If you have any questions feel free to call. Thank you.
