Dear Mr. Catanach --

At the November 20 hearing on case 13142 (Maralo), you gave the parties 30 days to file proposed orders. If I'm counting correctly, the proposed orders are due Monday, December 22 (the thirtieth day falls on Saturday, December 20).

On behalf of the OCD, I respectfully request an extension of time until Tuesday, January 6 for the parties to file their proposed orders. I am copying this e-mail to Mr. Sandoval (who represents the landowner, Mr. Anthony) and to Mr. Kellahin (local counsel for Maralo). Because I do not have an e-mail address for Mr. Strange (counsel for Maralo), I will fax a copy of this e-mail message to him.

Thank you. Gail MacQuesten 476-3451.

Dear Mr. Catanach:

As you know, the parties' proposed orders in the above-referenced matter are due today. Undersigned counsel has been provided an opportunity to review the proposed order submitted by Ms. MacQuesten and agree with the substance of same. As such, Mr. Anthony does not feel it necessary to provide his own proposed order at this time.

Mr. Anthony would, however, like an additional week in which to more carefully study Ms. MacQuesten's proposed order and to prepare and present any supplemental comments if deemed necessary after such review. The supplemental comments are not expected to be voluminous.

Sincerely,

David Sandoval
