Dear Examiner McMillan-

I apologize in advance for my naivete.

I'm asking for some procedural guidance in regards to the Case 16115 and 16116. Premier has uncovered 2 significant misrepresentations in Chisholm's testimony on May 3rd. Premier has already applied for a de novo hearing so the question may be closed but out of respect for your office/position, should the case be reheard or simply follow the path to de novo? In other words, when I present these misrepresentations at de novo, I don't want to be asked why I didn't bring these issues to Examiner McMillan's attention.

I know your schedule is busy and I appreciate your time.

Regards,

Ken
