CASE CALLED
MOTION FOR CONTINUANCE	03
REPORTER CERTIFICATE	06

1 HEARING EXAMINER ORTH: Moving then to Matter 10,
2 Case Number 21100, Marathon Oil, compulsory pooling
3 application for a well named Blue Ridge.

4 Ms. Bradfute, I see you on.

5 MS. BRADFUTE: Madam Hearing Examiner, thank you.

6 This is an application that relates to five other
7 applications of which Marathon had filed continuances for, I
8 had overlooked this case on the docket. It was sandwiched
9 between several other cases that Marathon entered
10 continuances for and the five related cases. I did file a
11 request for a continuance this morning and served counsel
12 for COG Operating. Marathon and COG Operating have agreed
13 to continue this application.

14 And I do apologize to the Division, it was my 15 error in missing this case on the docket. With that I would 16 like to respectfully request that this case be continued to 17 the date that the parties have agreed to, realizing of 18 course that I did have an error here.

19 HEARING EXAMINER ORTH: All right, thank you. I
20 see you, Mr. Feldewert. Are you here for COG?

21 MR. FELDEWERT: Yes, Madam Examiner, and we have 22 no objection to the request Ms. Bradfute is requesting. We 23 continued our competing case, and clearly this was just an 24 oversight.

25 HEARING EXAMINER ORTH: I saw that as I was going

1 through the documents, so as I understand the request, the
2 continuance would be to July 23, 2020, along with cases
3 20738 through 20742. So we will continue it to that date,
4 and thank you for acknowledging the oversight.

5 Going forward, as I said earlier, I will be asked
6 to dismiss anything that continues before 8:15 on Tuesday,
7 but this will be continued, thank you.

8 MS. BRADFUTE: Thank you.
