Thank you for reaching out. Marlene is out for a few days so the heavy burden of decision making falls on my narrow shoulders. Status conference is the answer.

All,

The above-referenced cases are on the August 19 docket. Titus and Marathon would like to set these cases for a contested hearing on December 16, 2021, if possible. We have reached out to Ms. Callahan to see if Chevron has any objection. However, I understand that she has not yet heard back from her client.

Please let us know if you would like to set this for a status conference on August 19, or if you prefer to simply issue a prehearing order.

As always, thank you for your help.

Best,
Sharon
