

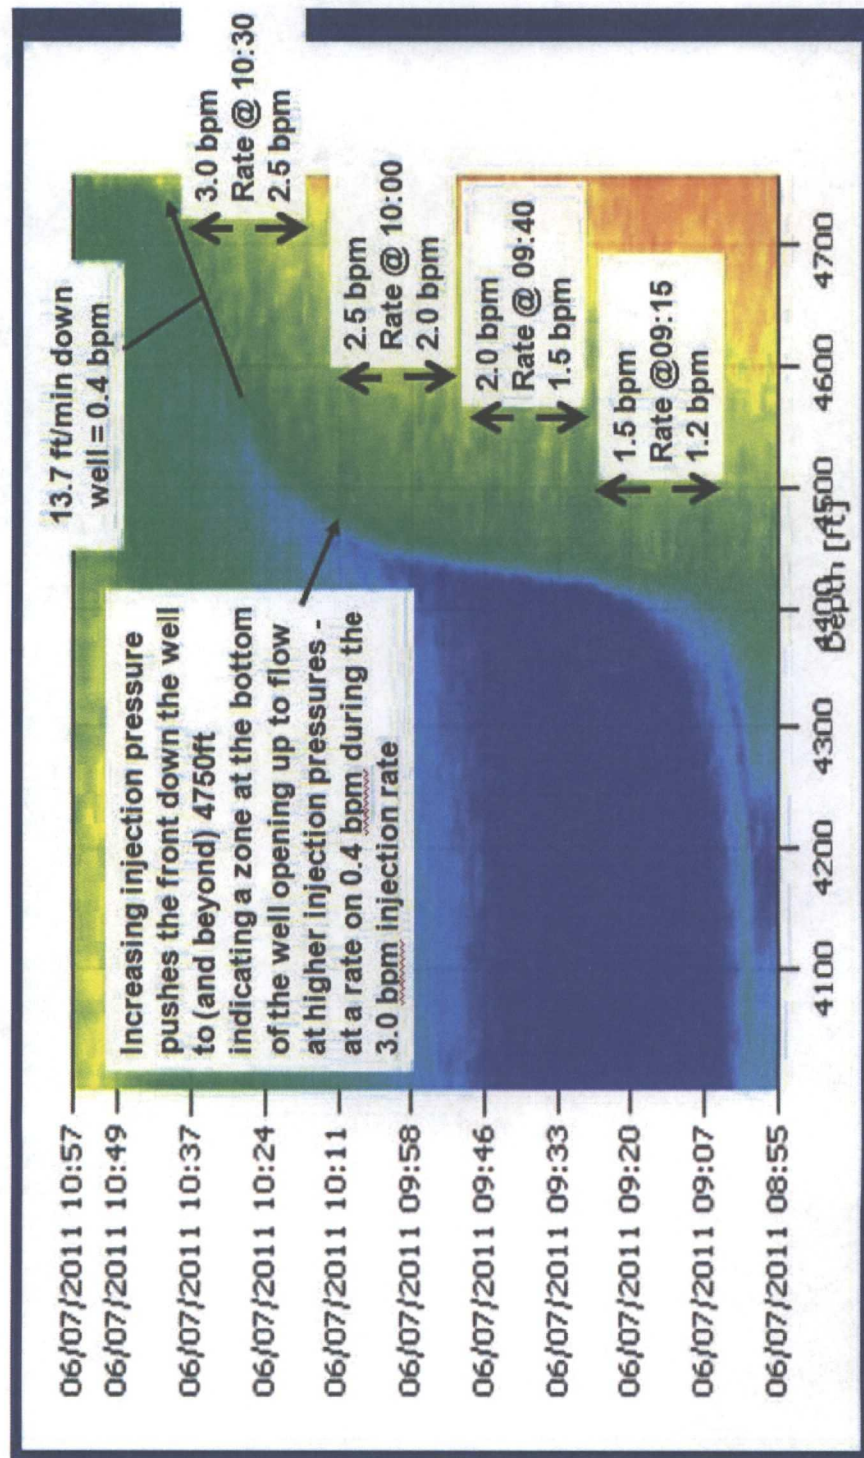

Figure 9: Increasing injection rate plot.

Increasing the injection rate, and pressure, pushes the injection front down from 4,420ft to 4,750ft (and beyond) indicating a reservoir zone at the bottom of the well opening up to flow at high injection pressures.