Mr. Brooks:

We ask that the above referenced cases be continued to the May 24 hearing docket. The continuance will allow Lime Rock to do further title work in connection with the pending motion to dismiss. Mr. Bruce does not object to the continuance.

Gentlemen

In the interest of administrative economy, I have concluded that I should hear argument on the Motion to Dismiss at the hearing. The parties should come prepared to present their cases on the merits since the Motion to Dismiss will probably be taken under advisement so that the Director can be fully advised.

Sincerely

David K. Brooks
Hearing Examiner

Gentlemen:

Attached is a copy of the Response to Motion to Dismiss which we filed with Ms. Davidson earlier today. You will recall that two weeks ago we asked how you wished to handle the motion procedurally. Before the hearing or at the hearing?
