* The proceeds attributable to these interests are instead owned by Charles B. Gillespie, Jr. until the non-consent penalties under the respective Operating Agreements have been recouped.

 It is possible that the Farmout Agreement and Assignments from the Bass group and Paulley Petroleum Inc. (now Hondo Oil & Gas Company) should be construed so that the Bass group has reserved a proportionate part of the full 1/8 overriding royalty interest in E₁SE₄ Section 28 in addition to existing overriding royalty burdens. See our discussion in the accompanying letter and in our division order title opinion covering E½SE¼ Section 28. If the Farmout Agreement and Assignments are so construed, the interests of these parties would instead be as follows:
