- Chris sent another follow up email asking Melissa if she had gotten a response from the board of the trust.

June 11, 2015

- Chris spoke to Melissa and was told that the Conquistador trust is close to finalizing its revisions.

July 22, 2015

- Chris received a call and email from Melissa informing him that the well proposal had just made it to her desk and said that the Conquistador board prefers to use the bank's lease, and she attached a copy of its lease form without acknowledging any of the Matador proposed revisions submitted from March.

Week of July 27

- Chris returned Melissa's call and informed her that we would review the lease and return it, and gave her notice of the compulsory pooling filing.

August 12, 2015

- Chris sent Melissa a redline of the trust's lease for review, and told her if she had any questions or if she would like to discuss she should call.

August 17, 2015

- Chris called Melissa to follow up on the redline and Melissa and discussed deal points. Melissa had not shown the lease to the Conquistador trust and Chris told her he would check with management on some of the deal points and send something back to her. Chris also reiterated that the compulsory pooling hearing was this week, but that Matador still wanted to reach a deal.
