Subject: FW: Application of Ard Energy OCD Case No. 15185

Gentlemen and Ms. Davidson,

After receiving additional documents from COG following the Division issuance of our requested subpoena, our expert engineering witnesses requires additional preparation time. However, our principal Ard Energy consultant, Ron Grappe, is undergoing therapy following heart surgery and requires much more time than was anticipated for recovery.

Accordingly, we request a continuance of this case until the Division's October 13 docket date.

Counsel for COG do not oppose this request.

Gentlemen and Ms. Davidson;

Due to conflicting schedules and anticipated requests for drilling expense information and data and expert preparation for hearing we request that the above-referenced case be continued to the Division's August 4, 2016 docket date.

Concurrence of opposing counsel has not been sought because no appearance have been filed in this case.
