

JOHN W. POORE
SENIOR STAFF RESERVOIR ENGINEER

ConocoPhillips Company
3401 E. 30th Street
Farmington, New Mexico 87402
(505) 599-4038 john.w.poore@conocophillips.com

PROFESSIONAL WORK HISTORY

9/2004 – Present	ConocoPhillips / Burlington Resources	Farmington, New Mexico
1991 – 9/2004	Saudi Aramco	Dhahran, Saudi Arabia
1987 – 1991	Shell Oil Company	New Orleans, LA
1982 – 1987	Shell Oil Company	Houston, Texas

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

- 25 years of diversified oil and gas reservoir engineering with strengths in business management and implementing computer technology.
- Reservoir management of the Fruitland Coal in the San Juan Basin
- Development and surveillance of the Ghawar Field in Saudi Arabia, the world's largest oil field which is a naturally fractured carbonate reservoir
- Reservoir management of Safaniya Field, a clastic reservoir in the Persian Gulf with international competitive drainage issues
- Development of deep sour gas in the aeolian Norphlet sand, offshore Mobile Bay
- Depletion strategy for several clastic salt dome formations offshore Gulf of Mexico
- Reservoir surveillance of waterfloods in West Texas and New Mexico
- Long-term strategic business planning
- Reserve assessment and reporting

EDUCATION

Ohio State University
B.S. Chemical Engineering
1982

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

Society of Petroleum Engineers

BEFORE THE OIL CONSERVATION COMMISSION
Santa Fe, New Mexico
Case No. 14015....Exhibit No. 3
Submitted by:
CONOCOPHILLIPS COMPANY
Hearing Date: NOVEMBER 5, 2007