1 MR. WARNELL: It's about 8:15, and
2 we'll call Docket Number 34-10 to order. We're now
3 on the record and today's date is October 14, I
4 believe. How quickly time passes.

5 We'll start by reading the
6 continuances and dismissals -- there are quite a
7 few -- and then we will get right into our first
8 case.

9 The continuances and dismissals that
10 I am aware of start on page 2 of the docket, and that
11 would be Case 14554 is continued to October 28, 2010.

12 The next case, Case Number 14533 has
13 been dismissed.

14 The third page, Case Number 14546 has
15 been continued to November 18, 2010.

16 Case 14438 continued to November 18.

17 Case 14514 continued to October 28,
18 the next docket.

19 The next page, page 4, Case Number
20 14555 has been continued to October 28.

21 Case 14556 has been continued to
22 October 28.

23 Case 14557 has been continued to
24 October 28.

25 And case 14551 has been continued to

1 October 28. I haven't been counting, but it looks
2 like October 28 is going to be busy.

3 Page 5, Case 14552 has been continued
4 to October 28.

5 Case 14558 has been continued to
6 October 28.

7 And Case 8352, on the bottom there,
8 has been continued to November 18.

9 The last page, page 6, Case 14520 has
10 been continued to October 28.

11 Case 14524 has been continued to
12 November 18.

13 Are there any other continuances or
14 dismissals that I may have missed? Okay.
