Dear Mr. Carroll:

We have been advised by Pride Petroleum's Raymond Maldonado that, according to Ray Smith, the January 25, 1996 hearing must be held as a matter of formality. However, it is our understanding that our company will not in any way be penalized as a result of its not attending the hearing. The oil wells have been plugged and Mr. Smith should soon have the necessary report from Pride Petroleum. We trust that the Oil Conservation Division will soon be able to issue a release of the bond. If you disagree with anything stated in this letter, please contact me immediately. Thank you.

Very truly yours,
