TRANSCRIPT OF HEARING

November 20, 1951

(Mr. Kellahin reads the notice of publication.)

MR. SETH: If the Commission please, this is an application for an unorthodox location of a well already completed in the Gallegos Canyon Unit.

Mr. M. W. Campbell, having been first duly sworn, testified as follows:

(Direction examination by Mr. Seth.)

Q Please state your name.

A M. W. Campbell.

Q Where do you live?

A Oklahoma City.

Q By whom are you employed?

A Benson and Montin.

Q Are you familiar with the Benson and Montin Well No. 6 in the Gallegos Canyon?

A Yes, I am.

Q Please state the facts to the Commission.

A Well No. 6 in the Gallegos Canyon Unit was originally surveyed April 28, 1951. At that time the stake was placed 990 feet from the west line and certified. It was so indicated on our notice of intention to drill. Drilling operations commenced September 16, 1951. Shortly thereafter a shallow normal pressure gas sand was encountered at the 500 feet mark, which lead to the decision to attempt completion in the pictured cliffs. This had been originally started as a Dakota test. The decision was made to complete it in the pictured cliffs at 1400 feet rather than continue drilling to the Dakota. The location was re-surveyed for the new Dakota test, which would utilize an intermediate string of casing. At that time Well No. 6 was found to be 1340 feet of the south line and 810 feet from the west line. This could only have been caused by an error in the original survey or movement of the stake by meddlers. The entire area surrounded is unitized and it is believed that no rights will be damaged by the location. The present status is that the casing is set on the pictured cliffs 1423 feet and operations have been suspended since October 13th pending approval.

Q Benson-Montin are the operators of the Gallegos Canyon Unit?

A That's right.

Q All the land surrounding it is within that unit, and there will be a new well in that vicinity as a Dakota test.

A That's right.

CHAIRMAN SPURRIER: Any questions of this witness? If not, the witness will be excused. The case will be taken under advisement and we will proceed to Case No. 326.
