TRANSCRIPT OF HEARING

December 16, 1952

BEFORE: Hon. Ed. Mechem, Governor and Chairman
 Hon. Guy Shepard, Land Commissioner and Member
 Hon. R. R. Spurrier, Director and Member

MR. SPURRIER: The next case is No. 463.

(Mr. Graham reads the notice of publication.)

ELVIS A. UTZ,

having been first duly sworn, testified as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MR. GRAHAM:

Q Please state your name for the record.

A Elvis A. Utz, engineer of the Oil Conservation Commission.

Q In your capacity as engineer, have you made a study of the advertised extensions in Case 463?

A Yes, I have.

Q Will you discuss that and give your recommendation, please?

A I recommend that the pools of Northwestern New Mexico, San Juan Basin, be extended as advertised.

Q That is in all of the subsections?

A That is correct. And I offer my recommendation as an exhibit in this case. That's all I have.

MR. SPURRIER: Any questions of this witness?
Any objection to the Commission's proposal to extend these pools?

The witness may be excused.

The case will be taken under advisement.
