Dear Mr. Kimbell:

Our client, Roy L. Cook, has been advised by the New Mexico Oil Conservation Commission that you have filed an Application for an order force-pooling a 320 acre gas proration unit consisting of the E/2 of Section 22, Township 29 North, Range 11 West, San Juan County, New Mexico. This matter has been set for Examiner Hearing on Wednesday, April 5, 1961.

There has never been any reluctance on the part of Mr. Cook to communitize his leasehold interest in the above described unit and Mr. Cook has never declined to pay his proportionate share of the actual cost of drilling the well. Consequently, insofar as Mr. Cook's interest is concerned, the force pooling application was unnecessary and untimely.

Mr. Cook has never been furnished with an itemization of tangible and intangible costs, supported by invoices, as a basis for his consideration for contribution to cost of the drilling of this well. The only information Mr. Cook has received is a tabulation of various figures totaling $96,912.65, which is, of course, considerably in excess of the average cost of wells drilled in this area. It is a matter of record that the drilling of a well to approximately the same
