Attention: Mr. Dan Nutter

Re: Case 2624

Gentlemen:

In accordance with the request of Mr. Dan Nutter, Examiner in the above styled cause which was heard on August 29, 1962, attached is the telegram received from Mr. A. F. Bloomfield stating that he has no objection to the change in well location which we advised Mr. Bloomfield would be requested at the hearing.

Very truly yours,

EL PASO NATURAL GAS PRODUCTS COMPANY

The above described tract is included in a royalty owners' unit consisting of all of that portion of the W/2 of said Section 17 lying north of the mid-channel of the San Juan River, which lands are owned and/or under lease to the Applicant and Humble Oil and Refining Company. By a Joint Operating Agreement, Applicant has been designated the Unit Operator and files this application in such capacity.

For the purposes of this application, the mid-channel, or centerline, of the San Juan River is assumed to be in conformance with the U.S. G. L.O. Plat of Survey dated August 31, 1882. Applicant will request, however, that the order sought hereby provide that in the event it is determined by an official resurvey, or otherwise that the acreage in said proration unit is greater or smaller than 82,07 acres, the acreage allocated to said unit shall be adjusted accordingly, provided that Applicant shall have the right to file for a new unit for the purpose of making any other adjustments thereby deemed necessary or desirable.

The operators, other than Applicant and Humble, offsetting the unit sought and their addresses are as follows:

Operator	Autess
Pan American Petroleum Corporation	Oil & Gas Building Fort Worth, Texas
Grossman - Lockie	4400 Beckland Drive Farmington, N. M.

Granting of the order sought by this application would not impair the correlative rights of anyone.

Very truly yours,

Address
