Dear Mr. Folsom:

The Bureau of Land Management (BLM) New Mexico is happy to recognize Santa Fe Energy Resources, as the recipient of the Annual Environmental Initiatives Award for southeastern New Mexico.

Santa Fe Energy Resources operates 31 producing leases and communitization agreements in Lea and Eddy Counties. Your locations are clean, neat and almost always in full compliance with BLM regulations, orders, and NTL's. A typical production facility is fenced, painted, signed, and free of trash and oil spills, but compliance to the regulations goes much further than appearances. All of the drilling operations, pipelines, roads, production facilities, etc., are designed, built, and operated with an air of professionalism and land ethic. All of your field personnel really do want to do a better job. They choose to do what is best for Santa Fe Energy.

Instances of noncompliance are issued to Santa Fe Energy just like every other operator, but they are few in number and almost always minor in nature. Santa Fe takes a positive attitude in actually wanting to know the regulations so they can comply . . . this single point is probably most responsible for your being honored as the best operator in the Roswell District for 1990.

Sincerely,

Larry L. Woodard
State Director

Mr. Tommy Folsom
Santa Fe Energy Company

Dear Tommy:

Congratulations upon being the recipient of a well deserved award and recognition from the Bureau of Land Management.

Your land use practices and high standards of professionalism are exemplary.

Eddy County is extremely proud to have you and Santa Fe Energy Company in our county. As an Eddy County Commissioner, I too, am concerned about our land; in protecting it and keeping it beautiful, and at the same time using its many resources. You have proven that both are possible simultaneously.

As a life long member of an agriculture family, I know it is possible for two of New Mexico's and Eddy County's most valuable resources, agriculture and oil & gas to practice effective conservation together. I deeply appreciate your concerns, cooperation and ethics.

My very best wishes for continued success.

Sincerely,

Nancy Brantley
Vice-Chairperson, Eddy County Commissioners

Dear Tommy:

On behalf of the City of Carlsbad, I want to congratulate you on your recent recognition as recipient of the Annual Environmental Initiatives Award for southeastern New Mexico from the Bureau of Land Management.

I believe we all feel that the environment is very important today, and you and Santa Fe Energy Resources, Inc. are to be congratulated for the work you are doing to help make this country a better place to live. Our world would be better off if we had more dedicated companies like Santa Fe Energy Resources who are committed to improving the environment.

Small businesses in our community are our biggest assets, and we are very proud to have your company in Carlsbad.

Congratulations again on your fine award.

Yours truly,

Bob Forrest
