Dear Sir:

Your letter of July 1 has been received. Under date of July 6, 1954, we wrote Mr. Timmons at his Denver address and requested that he take immediate action to comply with your requirements. To date we have not received a reply from him. We had prior to this letter written Mr. Timmons numerous letters at his address in New Mexico and his former address in Illinois in an attempt to secure his cooperation.

We appreciate your reply in this matter and sincerely hope that you are able to secure the cooperation of Mr. Timmons. We shall await your further report.

Yours very truly,

John R. Hickisch
