OCD approval does not relieve the operator of liability should their operations fail to adequately investigate and remediate contamination that may pose a threat to ground water, surface water, human health or the environment. In addition, OCD approval does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other federal, state, local laws and/or regulations.

Subject: RE: Legacy Reserves, L.P., 2RP-4490 Antelope Battery & Coyote #1 C-141

Hello all,

I have reviewed the Initial C-141 and found that the coordinates were not the correct format that OCD is able to accept. We need all coordinates in decimal degrees that is the only format our system allows for entry, so since it appears according to the description you all provided (on the Initial C-141) that this release is related to the location of the API number, I just went ahead and used the coordinates we had on record for the API number. I scanned in the version of the form where I made the changes and I included an attachment behind the form of our OCD COA document. There is no RP case number yet cause the form has not yet been processed but I wanted you all to see that per the COA document I provided a due date of 4/8/18 for the next step of the process to be submitted to OCD by. Once an RP number has been generated either Mike or myself will do our best to let you all know of that number. Otherwise you are welcome to check the OCD website yourself periodically to see if one comes up on there in the meantime.

Also even though this release was reported as less than 10bbbs I still included Tammy from the SLO incase so they could make their assessment.

Thank you,

Hello all,

Thank you Olivia.

Sarah, I responded to your delineation plan for the Antelope battery (case number 2RP-4490) already prior to receiving this forwarded email from Olivia. However, I checked my records/emails for a C-141 submission for Legacy's Coyote #1 Battery and I don't have anything. I also checked further to see if maybe my email is just messing up by looking in our database to see if one was received, meaning I checked the admin entry records as well, and I don't show anything regarding a release occurring at the Coyote location was processed around Jan 2018 by our administrative folks here in our office either. I literally don't have it.

Olivia is not needing to be involved on this one if the release occurred in Eddy county and she forwarded me the attachments you sent her from your email you sent her yesterday. So now I have the Initial C-141 for Coyote #1 Battery. I will get it processed.

Thank you and sorry for the confusion,

Crystal Weaver
