Install spare horizontal separator currently not in use to replace a dysfunctional heater treater for proper separation of water, oil and gas. This notice is being completed after the fact as a decision had to be made upon notice of heater treater functioning improperly. The heater treater will be inspected and tested for NORMS. After proper inspection and testing, the heater treater will be sold for scrap. The firetube will be recycled and stored for future use. Start date was January 23, 2017 for the work to move the separator and there is an estimated end date of January 15, 2017 for removal of the heater treater.

Updated facility diagram forthcoming.
