REPORT OF THE COMMISSIONER OF THE GENERAL LAND OFFICE

FOR THE YEAR ENDING 31st MARCH 1964

BY THE COMMISSIONER

GENERAL LAND OFFICE

HER MAJESTY'S STATIONERY OFFICE

LONDON

The General Land Office is a department of the Ministry of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food. It is responsible for the management of the Crown Land and the Land of the Duchies of Lancaster and Cornwall. The Office is headed by the Commissioner, who is appointed by the Secretary of State for Agriculture, Fisheries and Food.

The main functions of the Office are to manage the Crown Land and the Land of the Duchies, to advise the Secretary of State on matters relating to the Land, and to carry out the duties of the Office as directed by the Secretary of State. The Office is also responsible for the management of the Land of the Duchies of Lancaster and Cornwall, which is held in trust for the Duchesses of Lancaster and Cornwall.

The Office has a staff of approximately 100 persons, and its headquarters are at the General Land Office, Whitehall, London. The Office also has regional offices in various parts of the country.

The Office has a long and distinguished history, and has played a major role in the management of the Crown Land and the Land of the Duchies for many years. The Office is committed to the efficient and effective management of the Land, and to the provision of high quality services to the public.
