Describe Cause of Problem and Remedial Action Taken.*

The spill was caused by human error; transfer pump was shut off which resulted in overfilling the produced water tank. Approximately 21 bbls of water was spilled inside lined SPCC containment. The containment liner was inspected immediately after the spill occurred. Based on the inspection, there is no evidence that the spilled fluids have left the containment.
A small amount of water (less than 0.5 bbl) misted through the tank hatch and impacted an area next to the containment by the loadout line. The spill did not migrate off location.

Describe Area Affected and Cleanup Action Taken.*

The impacted area by the loadout line was scraped off; the impacts were about 1/4" deep.

I hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger public health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of liability should their operations have failed to adequately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, human health or the environment. In addition, NMOCD acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations.
