LAND ACQUISITION REPORT

The following is a summary of the land acquisition process for the Santa Fe National Monument. The process began with the identification of potential acquisition sites. These sites were then evaluated for their suitability for acquisition. The evaluation process took into account a variety of factors, including the size of the site, its location, and its potential for scientific study. The results of the evaluation process are summarized in the table below.

Site Name	Size (Acres)	Location	Potential for Scientific Study
Site A	100	North of Santa Fe	High
Site B	200	East of Santa Fe	Medium
Site C	300	South of Santa Fe	Low
