Enclosure

The report of the Oil Conservation Commission, Hobbs, New Mexico, dated June 28, 1934, is herewith enclosed for you. It contains a detailed statement of the work of the Commission during the year ending June 30, 1934. The Commission was organized on June 1, 1933, and has since that time been engaged in a study of the oil resources of the State of New Mexico. It has held numerous public hearings and has received many suggestions from the public. It has also conducted extensive geological and geophysical surveys of the oil fields of the State. The report contains a summary of the results of these surveys and a statement of the Commission's recommendations for the conservation of the oil resources of the State.

I am, Sir, very truly yours,
J. H. Hobbs
