

Abnormal Pressures, Temperatures or Hydrogen Sulfide:

It is possible that H₂S will be encountered in the San Andres, however, the casing and cement program should allieviate potential danger. Bottom-hole pressure is not expected to exceed 6000#.

Anticipated Starting Date:

Drilling will commence upon approval. Drilling and completion operations will last approximately 30 days.