INTERNATIONAL BANK FOR RECONSTRUCTION
AND DEVELOPMENT

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Board of Directors of the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development (the Bank) has the honor to acknowledge the receipt of the Report of the President of the Bank for the year ended December 31, 1954. The Report contains a detailed account of the activities of the Bank during the year and a statement of the financial position of the Bank at the end of the year. The Board is pleased to note the progress made by the Bank in its efforts to assist the economic development of the world, particularly in the field of reconstruction and development of the war-torn areas of Europe and Asia. The Board also notes the successful completion of the first year of the Bank's operations under the new Charter, which was adopted by the Board in 1953. The Board is confident that the Bank will continue to make significant contributions to the economic development of the world in the years ahead.

Financial Statement

The financial statement of the Bank for the year ended December 31, 1954, shows a net income of $1,000,000. The statement also shows a balance of $10,000,000 at the end of the year. The Board is pleased to note the successful completion of the first year of the Bank's operations under the new Charter, which was adopted by the Board in 1953. The Board is confident that the Bank will continue to make significant contributions to the economic development of the world in the years ahead.
