

GRAHAM #1 SDW - Lea County, New Mexico

Devonian Formation - 100% dolomite, white to cream color, fine crystalline, some visible vugular porosity, fair fracture porosity.

Overall zone            -    Top: 13,435'
                                      Bottom: 13,570'
                                      Thickness: 135'

Perforations            -    13,474-13,564'

Fresh water occurs to a depth of 250' from surface in the Ogolalla formation.