

Attachment C
(Page 1 of 1)

Cross-flow should not occur under producing conditions. Fluids are compatible and formation damage will not occur. The allocation formula will be reliable, and the commingling will not result in the permanent loss of reserves due to cross-flow in the wellbore.

Commingling will not jeopardize the efficiency of future secondary operations in either of the pools being commingled.