

9. No abnormal pressures are expected. The Morrow formation can be controlled with a 10.2#/gallon mud. No abnormal temperatures or free hydrogen sulfide gases are known to exist in the area.
10. Anticipated spud date is August 15, 1977. Drilling operations will require approximately 65 days; completion operations will require an additional two to three weeks.

RECEIVED

AUG 23 1977

OIL CONSERVATION COMM.
HOBBS, N. M.