2. BACKGROUND INFORMATION

The purpose of this project is to develop a system that can automatically generate reports from data stored in a database. The system will be used by the marketing department to analyze sales data and generate reports on a regular basis. The system will be developed using the following technologies: Java, JSP, and MySQL.

The system will be developed in three phases. In the first phase, the requirements will be gathered and the system architecture will be designed. In the second phase, the system will be developed and tested. In the third phase, the system will be deployed and maintained.
