THEORY OF THE EARTH

CHAPTER I. OF THE ORIGIN OF THE EARTH.

The origin of the earth is a subject which has occupied the minds of philosophers from the earliest ages. The ancients were divided into two schools, the one holding that the earth was created out of nothing, and the other that it was formed out of pre-existing matter. The former school was the more numerous, and the latter the more philosophical. The former school was the more numerous, and the latter the more philosophical.
