ANNUAL REPORT ON THE STATE OF THE ARMY

The Ministry of Defense has the honor to inform you that the annual report on the state of the army for the year 1917 has been prepared and is now being submitted to the High Command. The report contains a detailed account of the military operations, the state of the troops, and the results of the various campaigns. It also includes a summary of the financial and administrative matters connected with the army.

The report is divided into two parts: the first part deals with the military operations, and the second part deals with the administrative matters.

The High Command has the honor to acknowledge the receipt of the report and to express its appreciation for the efforts of the Ministry of Defense in the preparation of this important document.

Yours faithfully,
The Chief of Staff

Yours faithfully,
The Minister of Defense

The report is now being distributed to the various commands and is to be read at the next meeting of the High Command.
