

NEW MEXICO OIL CONSERVATION COMMISSION
Santa Fe, New Mexico

MISCELLANEOUS NOTICES

Submit this notice in triplicate to the Oil Conservation Commission or its proper agent before the work specified is to begin. A copy will be returned to the sender on which will be given the approval, with any modifications considered advisable, or the rejection by the Commission or its agent, of the plan submitted. The plan as approved should be followed, and work should not begin until approval is obtained. See additional instructions in the Rules and Regulations of the Commission.

Indicate nature of notice by checking below:

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO TEST CASING SHUT-OFF	X	NOTICE OF INTENTION TO SHOOT OR CHEMICALLY TREAT WELL
NOTICE OF INTENTION TO CHANGE PLANS		NOTICE OF INTENTION TO PULL OR OTHERWISE ALTER CASING
NOTICE OF INTENTION TO REPAIR WELL		NOTICE OF INTENTION TO PLUG WELL
NOTICE OF INTENTION TO DEEPEN WELL

Monument, New Mexico
Place

December 13, 1935
Date

OIL CONSERVATION COMMISSION,
Santa Fe, New Mexico.

Gentlemen:

Following is a notice of intentiton to do certain work as described below at the _____

Barnsdall Oil Company Alaska Cooper Well No. 2 in NW/4
Company or Operator Lease of Sec. 7, T. 20S, R. 37E, N. M. P. M., Monument Field, Lea County.

FULL DETAILS OF PROPOSED PLAN OF WORK

FOLLOW INSTRUCTIONS IN THE RULES AND REGULATIONS OF THE COMMISSION

This is to noify you that we intend testing the water shmt off on the 7th casing on December 16, 1935 by building up a pressure of 1200# and leaving set 30 minutes.

This is a duplicate of Form SG 103 signed by you
December 17, 1935

This should be Range 37E instead of 36E as was reported on our Form SG 103

Approved APR 7 1936, 19____
except as follows:

OIL CONSERVATION COMMISSION,

By [Signature]
Title Oil Conservation

Barnsdall Oil Company
Company or Operator

By [Signature]

Position List. Supt.

Send communications regarding well to

Name C.W. McKeen

Address Pecos, Texas Box #466

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions and activities. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for transparency and accountability, particularly in financial matters. The text suggests that organizations should implement robust systems to track every aspect of their operations, from procurement to sales, to ensure that all data is captured and stored securely.

2. The second part of the document addresses the challenges of data management in a rapidly changing environment. It highlights the need for flexible and scalable solutions that can adapt to new technologies and evolving business requirements. The author argues that organizations must invest in training and development to ensure that their staff are equipped with the skills necessary to manage complex data sets effectively. Additionally, the text stresses the importance of regular audits and reviews to identify potential weaknesses and areas for improvement.

3. The third part of the document focuses on the role of technology in enhancing operational efficiency. It explores various digital tools and platforms that can streamline processes, reduce errors, and improve communication. The author notes that while technology offers significant benefits, it also presents challenges, such as data security and integration with existing systems. Therefore, organizations must carefully evaluate their options and implement a balanced approach that maximizes the advantages of technology while mitigating its risks.

4. The fourth part of the document discusses the importance of collaboration and teamwork in achieving organizational goals. It argues that no single department or individual can succeed in isolation; instead, success requires a collective effort where all team members contribute their unique skills and knowledge. The text encourages the creation of a supportive work environment that fosters open communication and mutual respect. It also suggests that organizations should regularly assess their team dynamics and make adjustments as needed to ensure that everyone is working towards the same objectives.

5. The fifth part of the document addresses the issue of risk management. It defines risk as any event or circumstance that could potentially harm the organization's ability to achieve its mission. The text outlines a systematic approach to risk management, starting with the identification of potential risks, followed by an assessment of their likelihood and impact. Once risks are identified, the next step is to develop strategies to mitigate or avoid them. The author emphasizes that risk management is not a one-time exercise but an ongoing process that requires continuous monitoring and evaluation. It also notes that effective risk management can help organizations build resilience and maintain their competitive edge in a volatile market.

6. The sixth part of the document discusses the importance of innovation and creativity in driving growth and innovation. It argues that organizations must foster a culture of innovation where employees are encouraged to think outside the box and propose new ideas. The text suggests that organizations should provide the necessary resources and support for innovation, such as dedicated time and space for experimentation. Additionally, it emphasizes the importance of protecting intellectual property and encouraging collaboration between different teams to bring innovative ideas to fruition. The author concludes that innovation is a key driver of long-term success and that organizations must remain committed to it to stay relevant in a competitive market.

7. The seventh part of the document addresses the issue of sustainability and social responsibility. It defines sustainability as the ability to meet the needs of the present without compromising the ability of future generations to meet their own needs. The text argues that organizations have a responsibility to consider the environmental, social, and economic impacts of their operations. It suggests that organizations should adopt sustainable practices, such as reducing waste, conserving energy, and supporting local communities. Additionally, it emphasizes the importance of transparency and reporting on sustainability efforts. The author notes that sustainable practices can lead to cost savings, improved brand reputation, and increased employee loyalty, making them a win-win for organizations and society.

8. The eighth part of the document discusses the importance of leadership and management in driving organizational success. It argues that effective leaders are those who inspire and motivate their teams, set clear goals, and provide the necessary support and resources. The text suggests that organizations should invest in leadership training and development to ensure that their leaders are equipped with the skills necessary to lead their teams effectively. Additionally, it emphasizes the importance of communication and collaboration between leaders and their teams. The author concludes that strong leadership and management are essential for achieving organizational goals and maintaining a competitive edge in a dynamic market.