Gentlemen:

Gulf Oil Corporation hereby makes application for approval of a non-standard gas proration unit comprising W/2 of W/2 of Section 28, T-20-S, R-37-E, Lea County, New Mexico, and in support thereof states the following facts:

- (1) Gulf Oil Corporation is owner and operator of an oil and gas lease known as its Bell-Ramsay "B" Lease, Lea County, New Mexico, as shown on the attached plat.
- (2) Gulf Oil Corporation proposes that the above described acreage be established as a non-standard 160-acre gas proration unit in exception to Rule 5(a) of Order R-520.
- (3) The Bell-Ramsay "B" Well No. 3, located 1980 feet from the South line and 660 feet from the West line of Section 28, T-20-S, R-37-E, Lea County, New Mexico, was completed June 6, 1956, as a gas well in the Eumont Gas Pool. The applicant proposes to use this well as the unit well.
- (4) The proposed non-standard gas proration unit will meet the requirements of Rule 5(b) of the Oil Conservation Commission Order No. R-520 as follows:
  - (a) Contiguous quarter-quarter sections will comprise the unit.
  - (b) The proposed unit lies wholly within a single governmental section.

OFFICE OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20530

January 1, 1964

Dear Sir:

I am writing to you regarding the matter of the proposed merger of the American Bar Association and the American College of Trial Lawyers. This matter has been referred to the Department of Justice for review.

The Department of Justice is currently reviewing the proposed merger and its potential impact on the legal profession. We are particularly concerned with the effect of the merger on the public interest and the administration of justice.

In the event the Department of Justice determines that the proposed merger is in the public interest, it will issue an order approving the merger. However, if the Department determines that the merger is not in the public interest, it will issue an order prohibiting the merger.

I am sure that you will understand the need for the Department of Justice to carefully review this matter. We will keep you informed of the progress of the review.

Very truly yours,

Attorney General

Enclosed for you are two copies of a letterhead memorandum from the Department of Justice regarding the proposed merger. One copy of the memorandum is being furnished to the American Bar Association and the American College of Trial Lawyers.

I am sure that you will find this information helpful. Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions or concerns.

Sincerely,

Attorney General

Very truly yours,

Attorney General
