1. The first step in the process of the investigation is the identification of the problem. This is done by the investigator who is assigned to the case. The investigator will then conduct a thorough search of the records to determine if there is any information that might be helpful in solving the case. This may involve looking at the records of the person who was involved in the case, as well as the records of the organization or institution that was involved. The investigator will also look at the records of the people who were involved in the case, as well as the records of the people who were involved in the case.
