

We recommend increasing the properties slightly for any DST's that may occur.

At 8,000' we recommend reducing the water loss <10.

This fluid, adjusted as shown in the "Recommended Mud Properties" section, or as hole conditions dictate, should provide good hole conditions for any testing, logging, and casing operations.

OFFICE OF THE
ROOSEVELT OFFICE

NOV 24 P 3 16

RECEIVED