

MEXICO OIL CONSERVATION COMMISSION

Santa Fe, New Mexico

JUN 16 1937
REGISTERED

MISCELLANEOUS REPORTS ON WELLS

Submit this report in triplicate to the Oil Conservation Commission or its proper agent within ten days after the work specified is completed. It should be signed and sworn to before a notary public for reports on beginning drilling operations, results of shooting well, results of test of casing shut-off, result of plugging of well, and other important operations, even though the work was witnessed by an agent of the Commission. Reports on minor operations need not be signed and sworn to before a notary public. See additional instructions in the Rules and Regulations of the Commission.

Indicate nature of report by checking below:

REPORT ON BEGINNING DRILLING OPERATIONS		REPORT ON REPAIRING WELL
REPORT ON RESULT OF SHOOTING OR CHEMICAL TREATMENT OF WELL		REPORT ON PULLING OR OTHERWISE ALTERING CASING
REPORT ON RESULT OF TEST OF CASING SHUT-OFF	X	REPORT ON DEEPENING WELL
REPORT ON RESULT OF PLUGGING OF WELL

Hobbs, N.M.

6-14-37

Place

Date

OIL CONSERVATION COMMISSION,

Santa Fe, New Mexico.

Gentlemen:

Following is a report on the work done and the results obtained under the heading noted above at the

Shell Pet. Corp. State "M" Well No. 4 in the Company or Operator
 Lot #16 of Sec. 1, T. 21-S, R. 35-E, N. M. P. M., Leases Field, Lea County.

The dates of this work were as follows: 6-10-37

Notice of intention to do the work was ~~presented~~ submitted on Form C-102 on 6-9-1937 and approval of the proposed plan was ~~was~~ obtained. (Cross out incorrect words.)

DETAILED ACCOUNT OF WORK DONE AND RESULTS OBTAINED

The 9 5/8" casing and well head connections were tested with 900 lb. pressure, retained for 30 minutes. Drilled plug and tested W.S.O. with 900 lb. pressure, retained for 30 minutes. Test approved.

DUPLICATE

Witnessed by J. D. Milburn

Name

Company

Title

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 15

day of June, 1937

Edmund Phelps

MY COMMISSION EXPIRES MAY 15, 1941

My Commission expires

I hereby swear or affirm that the information given above is true and correct.

Name E. L. Kinney

Position District Sup't.

Representing Shell Pet. Corp.

Company or Operator

Address Dr. #1457 - Hobbs, N.M.

Remarks:

Guy Shepard R. W.

Name

Title

1937 1457

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions and activities. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for transparency and accountability, particularly in financial matters. The text suggests that organizations should implement robust systems to track every aspect of their operations, from procurement to sales, to ensure that all data is captured and stored securely.

2. The second part of the document addresses the challenges of data management in a rapidly changing environment. It highlights the need for flexible and scalable solutions that can adapt to new technologies and evolving business requirements. The author argues that organizations must invest in training and development to ensure that their staff are equipped with the skills necessary to manage complex data sets effectively. Additionally, the text stresses the importance of regular audits and reviews to identify potential weaknesses and areas for improvement.

3. The third part of the document focuses on the role of technology in enhancing operational efficiency. It explores various digital tools and platforms that can streamline processes, reduce errors, and improve communication. The author notes that while technology offers significant benefits, it also presents challenges, such as data security and integration with existing systems. Therefore, organizations must carefully evaluate their options and implement a balanced approach that maximizes the advantages of technology while mitigating its risks.

4. The fourth part of the document discusses the importance of collaboration and teamwork in achieving organizational goals. It argues that no single department or individual can succeed in isolation; instead, success is achieved through the collective effort of all team members. The text provides several strategies for fostering a collaborative culture, including encouraging open communication, providing cross-training opportunities, and recognizing and rewarding team achievements. The author concludes that a strong sense of teamwork is a critical factor in the long-term success of any organization.

5. The fifth part of the document addresses the issue of risk management and the need for proactive planning. It explains that organizations must identify potential risks early on and develop strategies to mitigate them before they become major problems. The text suggests that this involves a combination of qualitative and quantitative analysis, as well as regular communication with stakeholders. The author emphasizes that risk management is not a one-time exercise but an ongoing process that requires continuous monitoring and adjustment.

6. The sixth part of the document discusses the importance of innovation and creativity in driving growth and competitive advantage. It argues that organizations must encourage their employees to think outside the box and explore new ideas and approaches. The text provides several examples of innovative practices and suggests ways to create an environment that supports creativity, such as providing resources for experimentation and encouraging a culture of learning from failure. The author concludes that innovation is a key driver of long-term success in a competitive market.

7. The seventh part of the document addresses the issue of sustainability and the need for organizations to consider the environmental and social impacts of their operations. It explains that sustainable practices are not only good for the planet but also for the bottom line, as they can lead to cost savings and improved brand reputation. The text suggests that organizations should adopt a holistic approach to sustainability, integrating environmental, social, and governance (ESG) factors into their core business strategy.

8. The eighth part of the document discusses the importance of customer satisfaction and the need for organizations to focus on providing exceptional service. It argues that happy customers are more likely to remain loyal and recommend the organization to others, which is a key driver of growth. The text provides several strategies for improving customer satisfaction, including listening to feedback, resolving issues quickly, and personalizing the customer experience. The author concludes that a customer-centric approach is essential for long-term success.

9. The ninth part of the document addresses the issue of talent management and the need for organizations to attract and retain top talent. It explains that in a competitive market, organizations must offer attractive compensation packages and provide opportunities for professional growth and development. The text suggests that organizations should focus on building a strong employer brand and creating a positive work environment. The author concludes that effective talent management is a critical factor in achieving organizational goals.

10. The tenth part of the document discusses the importance of strategic planning and the need for organizations to have a clear vision and direction. It argues that without a strategic plan, organizations are likely to become disorganized and lose focus. The text suggests that organizations should conduct regular strategic planning sessions to assess their current position, identify opportunities and threats, and develop a clear roadmap for the future. The author concludes that strategic planning is a fundamental tool for ensuring long-term success.