April 23rd, 1936.

Emperor Oil Company,
Electric Building,
Fort Worth, Texas.

Attention Mr. Edward A. Hudson

Gentlemen:

This is in answer to your letter of April 21st, 1936.

Under separate cover we are sending you a supply of ~~bonds~~ to be used in connection with drilling operations in the State of New Mexico.

Enclosed herewith are two forms of bonds which must be filed immediately. One form of bond is a blanket bond in the amount of $10,000.00 to cover all your drilling operations in the State.
The other bond form is for one well only and should be in the amount of $5,000.00.

Please fill out the bond and send to this office for approval at your early convenience.

Very truly yours,

OIL CONSERVATION COMMISSION
