1. The first part of the document is a letter from the author to the editor of the journal.

The letter is dated 19th March 1964 and is addressed to the editor of the journal. The author, who is a member of the editorial board, writes to inform the editor of the results of a recent meeting of the board.

The meeting was held on 18th March 1964 and was attended by the author, the editor, and several other members of the board. The main business of the meeting was to discuss the results of a recent survey of the journal's circulation.

The survey was conducted by the author and the results show that the journal's circulation has increased significantly since the last survey. This is a very encouraging result and it is hoped that it will lead to an increase in the journal's subscription rate.

The author concludes the letter by saying that the results of the survey are very encouraging and that it is hoped that the journal's circulation will continue to increase.

The author then signs the letter and the editor replies.

The editor's reply is dated 20th March 1964 and is addressed to the author. The editor thanks the author for the letter and the results of the survey.

The editor then says that the results of the survey are very encouraging and that it is hoped that the journal's circulation will continue to increase.

The editor then signs the letter and the author replies.

The author's reply is dated 21st March 1964 and is addressed to the editor.

The author thanks the editor for the letter and the results of the survey.
