RECOMMENDATIONS FOR THE FUTURE

The Commission believes that the oil industry in Mexico should be organized on a basis of national ownership and control. It recommends that the government should acquire a majority interest in the oil companies operating in Mexico, and that the government should have the right to regulate the operations of the industry in the interest of the nation. It also recommends that the government should have the right to expropriate the oil companies in the future.

The Commission believes that the oil industry in Mexico should be organized on a basis of national ownership and control.

RECOMMENDATION	REASON
1. The government should acquire a majority interest in the oil companies operating in Mexico.	To ensure national ownership and control of the oil industry.
2. The government should have the right to regulate the operations of the industry in the interest of the nation.	To protect the national interest and the welfare of the people.
3. The government should have the right to expropriate the oil companies in the future.	To ensure that the oil industry remains under national control.
