

COPY

New Mexico Oil Conservation Commission
January 17, 1956
Page 2

5. The non-standard gas proration unit lies wholly within a single governmental section.
6. The entire non-standard gas proration unit may reasonably be presumed to be productive of gas.
7. All operators owning interests within 1500 feet of the well are being notified by registered mail.
8. We have attached a table containing various test data and curves.

We request reclassification of the well and the assignment of the 320 acre non-standard gas proration unit under the rules and regulations for the Arrow Pool as set forth in Order R-520. If you are unable to grant our request by an administrative approval, then we request that you set this up for the first hearing date, either an examiner or regular hearing.

I hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge.

Yours very truly,

HUMBLE OIL & REFINING COMPANY

J. W. HOUSE,
Division Superintendent

By: H. L. Mansley
H. L. Mansley,
Asst. Div. Superintendent

Sworn to and subscribed before me this the 17th day of January, 1956.

Shirley Jones
Notary Public in and for
Midland County, Texas

AJT/ss
Attachment

The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that every entry, no matter how small, should be recorded to ensure the integrity of the financial data. This includes not only sales and purchases but also expenses and income.

The second part of the document provides a detailed breakdown of the company's financial performance over the past year. It includes a comparison of actual results against budgeted figures, highlighting areas of both success and improvement. The analysis shows that while sales were slightly below target, operating expenses were well-controlled, leading to a positive contribution margin.

The third part of the document outlines the company's strategic goals for the upcoming year. It focuses on increasing market share through targeted marketing campaigns and improving operational efficiency by streamlining processes. The management team is committed to achieving these goals and ensuring the company's long-term growth and profitability.

The fourth part of the document discusses the company's commitment to social responsibility and environmental sustainability. It details the various initiatives implemented to reduce the company's carbon footprint and support local communities. These efforts are seen as integral to the company's overall success and reputation.

The fifth part of the document provides a summary of the key findings and recommendations from the financial review. It reiterates the importance of maintaining accurate records and suggests areas for further improvement in financial management. The management team is confident in the company's ability to overcome challenges and achieve its goals.

The sixth part of the document discusses the company's future outlook and the potential for growth. It highlights the company's strong financial position and its commitment to innovation and development. The management team is optimistic about the company's future and its ability to continue to lead in its industry.

The seventh part of the document provides a detailed analysis of the company's market position and its competitive advantage. It identifies the company's strengths and weaknesses and suggests strategies to enhance its competitive edge. The management team is focused on maintaining its leadership position and driving growth.

The eighth part of the document discusses the company's human resources and talent management strategies. It highlights the company's commitment to attracting, developing, and retaining top talent. The management team is focused on creating a positive work environment and providing opportunities for professional growth.

The ninth part of the document provides a summary of the company's overall performance and its commitment to excellence. It reiterates the company's values and its dedication to its stakeholders. The management team is proud of the company's achievements and its commitment to continuous improvement.

The tenth part of the document discusses the company's financial projections and its ability to meet its obligations. It provides a detailed analysis of the company's cash flow and its ability to service its debt. The management team is confident in the company's financial stability and its ability to meet its obligations.